Six Days in Bombay by Alka Joshi

Tuesday, April 14 at 12:30 PM
The Midnight Library by Matt Haig

Happy 30th Anniversary to the Tuesday Afternoon Book Club! This group truly knows the joy of reading! We are so thankful to have them at the Berkley Library.

Origami Club

Mondays at 5:30 PM
(1/5, 2/2, 3/2, 4/6)

If you're interested in origami or are a seasoned folder, stop by the library's origami club! This club provides an opportunity to learn and explore with like-minded individuals. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Discover Your Best Self: Simple Steps to Lifelong Wellness

Monday, January 12 at 6:30 PM

Melissa Reznar, Nutrition and Lifestyle Medicine Professor at Oakland University, who is a nationally-certified health and wellness coach will describe the health and weight loss benefits of plant-based diets. In addition, the foundation of lifestyle medicine and its 6 pillars, particularly pillar one – whole-food plant-based diets – will be presented. Practical tools, like recipes and meal plans, will be highlighted. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Beyond the Driver's Seat: Alternatives to Extend Independence

Tuesday, January 13 at 2:30 PM

AgeWays is here to help with transportation needs. Do not give in to loneliness, isolation, and loss of interests. Transportation can be the key to independence—helping seniors and adults with disabilities get to the store, to doctor's appointments or out to visit family or friends. Mobility services for Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Wayne counties are a phone call or a computer click away thanks to AgeWay's myride2. Learn about myride2 and SMART and how they can help at this program. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Library Hours

Between Labor Day and Memorial Day, the Library will be open Monday through Wednesday from 10 AM to 8 PM, Thursday from 10 AM to 6 PM, Friday from 1 PM to 6 PM, and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 PM.

Interested in supporting the library? The Friends of Berkley Public Library would love to hear from you! The Friends are a non-profit group who raise funds to support the library's programs and services. ## Millennial Memoir Book Club

Memoirs by millennials, for millennials (and anyone else!). We'll be reading and discussing I Shouldn't Be Telling You This by Chelsea Devantez this month. Want to revisit the joy and trauma of coming-of-age at the end of the 20th century through the stories of the celebrities and pseudo-celebrities who lived it first-hand? Then this is the book club for you! Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

LGBTQ+ Book Club

Tuesday, January 27 at 6:30 PM

Calling all rainbow readers and allies! This book club is for anyone who wants to see themselves represented in courageous and tenacious stories of the LGBTQ+ community. We'll be reading Everything I Learned, I Learned in a Chinese Restaurant by Curtis Chin. Read the book ahead of time and bring a question and favorite quote to prompt some colorful conversation. Category is: reading rainbow realness! Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Arts & Crafts Supply Swap

Saturday, January 31

Ticketed guests from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM
Open to the public from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Do you have excess supplies from abandoned hobbies, or have you gone overboard on buying for art projects? Bring your unneeded supplies to the library and swap them for new-to-you treasures! We will be accepting supplies starting on Monday, January 12. Those who bring their supplies in advance will receive a ticket for the first pick of the supplies! Arts and crafts supplies only. Items must be in good condition.

Movie Prop Talk with Fred

Wednesday, February 4 at 6:30 PM

Movie prop maker Fred Gannod will share his experiences on movie sets such as Guardians of the Galaxy and Avengers and explain the behind-the-scenes of how some of the props were made. Sponsored by the Friends of the Berkley Public Library. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

The Great Backyard Bird Count

Saturday, February 7 at 1:00 PM

Join Oakland County Parks' naturalist and Berkley native Benjamin Prowse to learn about participating in this global citizen science event. Connect to nature and your community, while contributing valuable observations to a worldwide network of bird enthusiasts! Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Bulgaria and Balkan Wanderings

Tuesday, February 24 at 6:30 PM

Presented by Mariya Fogarasi. How can such a small country lay claim to having the oldest city in Europe? From supplying the world's perfume industry with 85% of its rose oil to honoring two monks, Cyril and Methodius, who invented the Cyrillic alphabet, Bulgaria might not top the list of European travel destinations, but it merits a visit at any time of year. Mariya Fogarasi will share her love of this Balkan country along with a few outings to surrounding points of interest. Sponsored by the Friends of the Berkley Public Library. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

El Camino de Santiago

Tuesday, March 10 at 6:30 PM

David Larwa, a modern-day pilgrim, has walked over 8,000 kilometers in Spain, Portugal, and France over the last several years. During this presentation, David will share why the Camino de Santiago (Way of Saint James) was one of the most important pilgrimages during the Middle Ages and about the rise of its current popularity. He will include Spanish history and personal insights gained while traveling at three miles an hour. He will share maps, books, and backpacking gear used for walking the Camino de Santiago. Sponsored by the Friends of the Berkley Public Library. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Unsolved Michigan

Wednesday, March 25 at 6:30 PM

Nina Innsted, Michigan True Crime Expert and host of the Already Gone Podcast, will be sharing true crime stories from Metro Detroit and reading from her book, Unsolved Michigan. Copies of her book will be available for purchase at the event. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Try Your Hand at Acting!

Wednesday, April 1 at 6:00 PM

You are invited to take part in a staged reading alongside the Rosedale Community Players. Perform in a staged reading of the 1903 play The Wizard of Oz, as imagined by L. Frank Baum. This sublimely silly production is fitting for April Fool's Day! Roles will be assigned on arrival. This event is open to adults and teens ages 15 and up. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Messy Play: Ice & Snow

Wednesday, January 7, at 10:30 AM

Messy play is great for your child's development, but can be stressful at home, so come join us for some messy fun at the library! We'll have several snowy activities available. Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Have you made a sun print? When sunlight shines on cyanotype paper, it changes the color of the exposed paper and leaves a silhouette of any object placed on top of the paper. Pick up a sheet of sun print paper at the front desk during the month of April!

Family Storytime often includes music, poems, stories, and a craft to take home.

Frodo Baggins, an adorable little doggie, will smile sweetly when you read them a story. Bonnie loves pets and stories of all kinds. Make your reading even more fun by sharing a book with a therapy dog!

Big Sibling Storytime

Saturday, January 10 at 10:30 AM

Have a child who is or is about to be a new big sibling? Join us for stories and activities to help them settle into their new role, including decorating a onesie for the new baby! Register at www.berkleymi.gov/libraryevents.

Thank You, Eliza!

Eliza is an entrepreneur in Berkley who has a flower stand every weekend all summer. With her mom's help, she donated some seeds from their flower garden to our seed library!

Through the generous donations of fellow Berkley gardeners, the Berkley Library and other sources, our seed library will have close to 100 different types of seeds available for our patrons including fruits, vegetables and herbs! Our seed library will be up and running in time for planting season this spring.

"I Have Been Carrying Her Books for 75 Years"

Angie and Bob Siver are regulars at the Berkley Library. They cheerfully carry on a conversation with the library staff at the circulation desk; their warm, loving banter flowing together. Theirs is a romance of the storybooks, proving that a couple who reads together, stays together.

What do you like about the library?

Angie: "What's not to like!"

Bob: "We love everything. The gals, everybody has been great here."

Angie: "It's a beautiful library. We've been coming here, let's see, our son just turned 70, and we've been bringing him here since he was little."

Do you have a favorite memory of the Berkley Library?

Angie: "Let's see here, what would have been back in 1957. The librarian would read to the children all the time. One time she brought a pussy willow to show the kids. My son stuck it up his nose and we ended up at Beaumont!" (laughter)

Bob: (laughter) "That's true!"

Angie: "We instilled reading in our kids, because we've been coming here since they were young and they are both avid readers. And our grandchild also."

Bob: "And our great grandchild! We love it."
